

Goat's cheese and olive oil experience in the heart of the Ben Ismaïl family reserve

Immersion at Triomphe Thuccabor near Béja

Visit one of Tunisia's best family reserves for a taste experience that blends goat's cheese and olive oil. You'll have an unforgettable time discovering the reserve, its olive groves, our beautiful goats and cheese-making workshops. After this half-day event, you'll leave with unforgettable human and culinary memories. We offer you a total immersion in the world of goat breeding and olive oil production through our olive tourism packages, which include a visit to our goat farm, milking parlour, cheese dairy, olive grove and organic mill, before continuing with an academic tasting session and a special Tunisian gastronomy lunch.

The spirit

In a family atmosphere, we offer you a unique experience in a century-old estate on the outskirts of Béja. Our estate is steeped in history. The olive trees will tell you the story of a magical tree that has stood the test of time, and the mills the story of the men and women who have loved this land and nurtured it day after day. In our company, you'll discover the essence of olive oil and goat's cheese, and taste the different flavors of these organic local products.

We've got you covered...

Arrival at the Ben Ismaïl estate. Welcome and presentation of the experience and the day's activities. During this experience, you'll enjoy an unforgettable visit to the region's finest olive-growing estate. After visiting the olive grove and traditional mill, you'll head to the goat farm to meet our beautiful, graceful goats. After the milking session, we move on to the cheese-making workshop. Here you'll see how goat's milk is processed and how the different cheese products and flavors are produced.

You continue afterwards with Salah and Maher for a tasting session of our tasty local products: olive oil and goat's cheese. Taste the different olive oils and formulations. All in a family atmosphere, with interesting anecdotes about our estate and local culture.

After the tasting, a special lunch of Tunisian and local delicacies awaits you.
