The spirit

A native of this beautiful region, with its fields stretching as far as the eye can see and its olive trees that have been reaching for the sky for centuries, I welcome you to a natural setting. My village presents itself to you as a charming image, with on one side green spaces with large Chemlali olive trees, plantations and livestock (cattle, poultry, rabbits...) and on the other side a sea view where absolute calm reigns.

Here, I grew up in symbiosis with nature and its beauty. I got to know my region and its products. I've also learned to transform them and use them as cosmetics: essential oils and soaps are my organic products, made with love.

We've got you covered...

For a day, I'll welcome you to my village and teach you the secrets of Fatma, the name I've chosen to give my products.

After a short chat about my village and its local produce, we move on to our products. I teach you the details and techniques of distilling the oils and water from the plants I use, and invite you to make your own.

We then move on to the soap-making workshop. Here you can see the different varieties of soap I produce with delicacy and finesse. If you have more time, you can make your own soap and take it with you at the end of the experience.

Following the hospitable tradition of our village, I invite you to a special home-cooked lunch, featuring local dishes based on recipes handed down from mother to daughter.

At the end of the experience, you'll be left with a lifetime of memories, as well as my manufacturing secrets, high quality soaps and beauty products so you can relive the experience using our products to brighten up your day!
