

“A thousand and one oils”: a tale of aromas with Olea Conseils

A gustatory immersion in the world of Tunisian oils

Live a unique experience and immerse yourself in an environment rich in experience acquired through years of work and research in Tunisian olive growing. A concentrate of know-how, history and personal and human experience. During your stay with us, you'll discover the richness of the Tunisian terroir in oils and olives, you'll learn how to differentiate the tastes and qualities of oils, you'll be introduced to olive oil tasting, you'll take part in practical sensory analysis workshops, you'll learn how to choose the oil you'd like to consume and how to enhance it. You'll also have the chance (during the olive-growing season between November and January) to produce your own olive oil by pressing olives with our center's experimental machine, and learn the ABCs of olive oil extraction and its various stages.
